St. James's, July 14.

The following Address having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Address from the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Inhabitants of the County of Clare.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, and Inhabitants of the County of Clare, convened at our General Assizes, with all Humility beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, to declare our Sentiments at this alarming Period.

With the utmost Indignation we heard the Account of the inimical Conduct adopted by the Court of France, in concluding a Treaty with your Majesty's Subjects in America, in order to render abortive those ample Terms of Reconciliation which your Majesty's most gracious Disposition induced you to propose.

Whatever Consequences may result from this hostile Procedure, we, having the most perfect Reliance on your Majesty's Wisdom, are determined to support your Majesty's Measures in the most strenuous Manner, with our Lives and Fortunes, to the utmost of our Abilities.

Situated in this remote Part of your Kingdom, we can with Confidence assure your Majesty, that you have not more loyal Subjects than the Inhabitants of this County, among whom any Opposition to the due Execution of the Laws has been utterly unknown.

As we have hitherto enjoyed the Blessings of Peace and Security, the happy Fruits of your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Regard; so, with Hearts replete with Love and Veneration, we entreat Permission to declare our steady Zeal and warmest Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.
